News and Citizen Subscription List.

The News and Citizen never had a larger and cleaner subscription list than it has to-day, every subscription is paid in advance, not a dead beat in the lot. No papers are sent back to this office by postmasters marked "refused," and the postoffices are not loaded down with papers to give away. Every paper stops when the time is out. It is not forced upon anybody. It has to be paid for in order to get it.

Montgomery for a days visit. Mr.
Jackson expects to locate in Rich-ford.

The World's Fair Contest.

There are no special features in the contest this week. The contestants hold their same positions, but the leaders add considerable to their total votes. The total vote to this time is 45,000, a remarkable record all will admit the more so when it is remembered that not a vote has been received for anything but subscriptions and coupons taken from the paper. No job work manipulations by anybody. This is certainly pleasing to the contestants, as all have an equal chance, while to the advertisers it shows that our list has been largely increased in the local fields, which is the ground they wish to cover. The vote now stands:—

Grace Miller, Hyde Park, - 17147

Edna Butler, Morrisville, - 16071

Newton Lebaron, Morrisville, 8044

Carrie Brush, Stowe, - 3300

Ras. E. G. French, Johnson, - 810

Warren Pike, Morrisville, - 749

Jeanie Emery, Eden, - 600 from their cottage at Lake Elmore to-day and will soon go to Old Orchard, Me., where they will be guests at the Grand Hotel, one of the popular summer resorts, for some time.

The new Mosler safe recently purchased by A. R. Campbell has been placed through the partition, between the front store and the optical department and makes a decidedly handsome piece of furniture. It is the largest safe in town, weighing 5000 pounds.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. T. Slayton last Sunday were, Mrs. Grant, a sister of the deceased from Rome, Georgia, O.
L. Slayton and wife of East Montpelier, Dr. Willis Slayton of Warren, F. L. Slayton and wife of Elmore, P.
R. Sargent of Stowe, Howard Skir-ner and wife of Craftsbury and several from Hyde Park.

I. C. Thompson of Craftsbury has been in town for several days. He has been training W. F. Steele's two horses, "Morning Star" and "Sunset," and has also been working with the trained dogs, belonging to Chas.
W. Nelson. Messrs Steele and Nelson expect soon to start out with a show which will be called "The Nelson-Steele Combination," in their latest novelty success, "A night at the Circus."

Mrs. F. P. Keeler has sold to Miss Florence Billings her millinery business in this place and will make her home in the future in Burlington.
Miss Billings will leave soon for Philadelphia, where she will spend some time in one of the large millinery establishments and before returning will visit the New York markets for the latest ideas in fall millinery. She will be accompanied by Katherine Boynton, who will have a position in the store this fall.

To Build Permanent Road.

Road Commissioner, G. A. Barrows, with a force of men, has begun work this week on Morristown Plains and will put in a piece of permanent road, extending from the lower gate of the Lamoille Valley Fair Ground to the home of Frank Crossman which will make a good strip of permanent road. All of the State tax money coming to Morristown, which is about $750, will be used in this work. This piece of road is traveled more than any other in town and it would seem that nowhere in town would a permanent road be so greatly appreciated.

Barn Struck by Lightning.

Last night during the electrical storm, at about 5:45, the farm barn of J. T. Hubbell, which is situated about two miles west of Wolcott village on the Morristown road, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Lightning entered the roof of the horse barn and went through into the cow stable, where the hired man was milking, the shock knocking down several of the cows, the one the man was milking falling over onto him. The man recovered from the shock in time to untie the cows and the stock was all saved with the exception of six hogs.
Mr. Hubbell had finished baying and over 60 tons of hay was burned. It is estimated that the entire loss is $2000, which is partially covered by an insurance of $1200.

Bounties on Noxious Animals.

For the year ending April 30, 1904, the State of Vermont has paid the sum of $11,269.70 in bounties on noxious animals. The largest single item is $6,467.70 paid on 21,559 hedgehogs at 30c each. In the year ending April 30, 1903, Lamoille county received bounties on the following: Foxes, 263; lynx, 3; hedgehogs, 433. For the year ending April 30, 1904, the number was: Foxes, 208; lynx, 5; hedgehogs, 1,414; bears, 1.

Death of J. Munroe Joslyn.

Last Wednesday night at about 11:30 occurred the death of J. Munroe Joslyn, one of Morrisville's old and respected citizens, at the age of seventy years. The cause of death is supposed to have been from the effects of diabetes, a disease from which he had been a sufferer for many years.
He had been at work as usual the day previous to his death and returned home apparently feeling as well as usual.
He awoke at about 11:30 and complained to Mrs. Joslyn of feeling badly. Mrs. Joslyn immediately set about to alleviate the pain, but before she could summon a physician the sufferer had passed away.

There was a short funeral service at the house Saturday morning, Rev.
G. N. Kellogg officiating, and the remains were taken to Waitsfield for interment.

Mr. Joslyn was a native of Waitsfield and came to this town 34 years ago, engaging at first in the hotel business. He was for several years the landlord of the old Morrisville house, which stood on the site of the present Randall hotel. He was later engaged for a short time in cattle buying and wholesale produce. He went into the grocery business about twenty years ago, in the old store, where now stands the George P. Drown building, and continued in that business until about eight years ago, when he retired from active business.

Mr. Joslyn is survived by a wife, who was formerly Miss Ella Hastings of Waitsfield, two brothers, Wilbur and Cassius, of Waitsfield, and one sister, Mrs. Marcella Dumas, of Waterbury.

daughter, Gertrude of No. Troy are spending a few days here.

Miss Edna Harris of Enosburg Falls visited her brother, Will at this place several days last week.

The Scofield lot in the village cemetry is being placed in order for the reception of a handsome monument.

Miss Bessie Eldred is home from Stowe where she has been spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Lettie Gibson.

Geo. Gauthier, for several months employed at the hide house, returned to his home at Toledo, Ohio, last Tuesday.

Episcopal services at the Cong'l
